

 call to action!

Conceived by REBAR, a San Francisco – based art collective, PARK(ing) Day is a one-day, global event where design firms, activists, and citizens collaborate to temporarily transform parking spots into “PARK(ing)” spaces : temporary public parks. This year, AIA-COTE and EGB-OC are collaborating to organize the 1st Annual Park(ing) Day – Orange County.

who : business or organization

what : design and create public parks in a standard parking stall

when : Friday, September 19, 2008 (7AM – 9AM set-up, event 9AM– 2PM)

where : Laguna Beach

For groups interested in participating in this event, please fill in the following information and email it to PARKingDayOC@gmail.com, by Tuesday, July 29, 2008. Once we have received your information, we will send you more detailed information after July 30, 2008.

Business/Organization : _____

Contact Person : _____

Email: _____ Telephone: _____

Questions : _____

You can find more information about this National event on TPL’s National Park(ing) Day page : http://www.tpl.org/tier2_kad.cfm?folder_id=3428.